The Ice Is Coming:

Coming Climate Crisis? Claire L. Parkinson, 2010-04-16 Decisively cutting through the hyperbole on both sides of the debate distinguished NASA climatologist Claire L Parkinson brings much needed balance and perspective to the highly contentious issue of climate change Offering a deeply knowledgeable overview of global conditions past and present the author lays out a compelling argument that our understandings and models are inadequate for confident predictions of the intended and unintended consequences of various projects now under consideration to modify future climate In one compact volume Parkinson presents a coherent synopsis of the 4 6 billion year history of climate change on planet Earth both before and after humans became a significant factor and explores current concerns regarding continued global warming and its possible consequences She ranges over the massive geoengineering schemes being proposed and why we need to be cautious about them the limitations of current global climate models and projections the key arguments made by those skeptical of the mainstream views and the realistic ways we can lessen destructive human impacts on our planet While discussing all of these polarizing topics the author consistently shows respect for the views of alarmists skeptics and the vast majority of people whose positions lie somewhere between those two extremes The book clarifies some of the most contentious points in the climate debate and in the process treats us to a fascinating discussion interweaving Earth history science the history of science and human nature Readers will be rewarded with a genuine understanding of a complex issue that could be among the most important facing humankind in the coming decades Ellavut / Our Yup'ik World and Weather Ann Fienup-Riordan, Alice Rearden, 2013-08-27 Ellavut Our Yup ik World and Weather is a result of nearly ten years of gatherings among Yup ik elders to document the qanruyutet words of wisdom that guide their interactions with the environment In an effort to educate their own young people as well as people outside the community the elders discussed the practical skills necessary to live in a harsh environment stressing the ethical and philosophical aspects of the Yup ik relationship with the land ocean snow weather and environmental change among many other elements of the natural world At every gathering at least one elder repeated the Yup ik adage The world is changing following its people The Yup ik see environmental change as directly related not just to human actions such as overfishing or burning fossil fuels but also to human interactions The elders encourage young people to learn traditional rules and proper behavior to act with compassion and restraint in order to reverse negative impacts on their world They speak not only to educate young people on the practical skills they need to survive but also on the knowing and responsive nature of the world in which they live *A Collection of Voyages and Travels, Some Now First Printed from Original Manuscripts, Others Now First Published in English. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
