Women in Academic Leadership Susan J. Bracken,Jeanie K. Allen,Diane R. Dean,2023-07-03 Colleges and universities benefit from diversity in their leadership roles and profess to value diversity of thought of experience of person Yet why do women remain under represented in top academic leadership positions and in key positions along the academic career ladder Why don t they advance at a rate proportional to that of their male peers How do internal and external environmental contexts still influence who enters academic leadership and who survives and thrives in those roles Women in Academic Leadership complements its companion volumes in the Women in Academe series provoking readers to think critically about the gendered nature of academic leadership across the spectrum of institutional types It argues that leadership the academy and the nexus of academic leadership remain gendered structures steeped in male oriented norms and mores Blending research and reflection it explores the barriers and dilemmas that these structures present and the professional strategies and the personal choices women make in order to successfully surmount them The authors pose questions about how women leaders negotiate between their public and private selves They consider how women develop a vital sense of self efficacy along with the essential skills and knowledge they need in order to lead effectively how they cultivate opportunity and how they gain legitimacy and maintain authenticity in a male gendered arena For those who seek to create an institutional environment conducive to equity and opportunity this book offers insight into the pervasive barriers facing women of all colors and evidence of the need for a more complex multi dimensional view of leadership For women in academe who seek to reach their professional potential and maintain authenticity it offers encouragement and a myriad of strategies for their growth and development Challenging Leadership Stereotypes Through Discourse Cornelia Ilie,Stephanie Schnurr,2017-08-31 This multidisciplinary volume brings together wide ranging empirical research that goes behind the scenes of diverse organizations dealing with business politics law media education and sports to unravel stereotypes of discursive leadership practices as they unfold in situ. It includes contributions that explore how leadership discourse is impacted by increasing pressures of glocalization the need to communicate across cultures and languages mediatization leaving ubiquitous digital traces standardization with quality management programmes negotiating organizational procedures mobility endless fast paced long distance synchronization and acceleration permanent co adaption and change. The discussion of purposefully chosen case studies moves beyond questions of who is a leader and what leaders do to how leadership stereotypes are being challenged in various communities of practice and thereby making change possible. Cross cultural and interdisciplinary approaches are used to get deeper insights into the competing multi voiced controversial and complex identities and relationships enacted in leadership discourse practices management Bettina Al-Sadik-Lowinski,2020-11-09 Ask 110 top female executives from five nations to reflect on their careers and leadership as part of an international scientific study and you will uncover a set of recommendations for women who want to become and remain international business leaders There is also invaluable advice for corporate managers wanting to recruit skilled women into executive positions This book is based on the authentic experiences and original words of the interviewees all of whom are senior female executives and on the author's analytical insights all set within a qualitative scientific framework. In this international research project the Global Women Career Lab the author analyzes what motivates these fascinating role models how they plan their career trajectories what mechanisms they use to overcome obstacles and what leadership strategies have enabled these women to reach senior management positions. The book offers the reader a remarkable insight into the experiences of women in top business positions in Russia China Japan France and Germany. About the author Dr Bettina Al Sadik Lowinski is a researcher author and certified international mentor coach MCC. Following a long management career in multinational companies she has worked as an international executive coach and expert on diversity in Germany France Japan and China. Reviews A wealth of testimonials from female role models from all over the world with valuable advices for women pursuing professional development as well as for companies leveraging diversity for competitive advantage. Hong Chow China CEO Roche Pharma Member of Supervisory Board Beiersdorf Women need other women as role models in management in order to plan their careers more strategically and understand that the sky is unlimited for them. In this book 110 role models from various countries share their experiences and I was especially impressed by the examples from Asian female leaders Mari Nogami President Takeda Consumer Healthcare Japan Ex the first Chair of Women in Business AmCham Japan. As a big advocate for global diversity I recommend this book to all women who want to rise up their careers globally and to corporate leaders who support diversity in their companies worldwide. Rosa Lee Executive Vice President of Bosch China Member of the Board and Corporate HR Head APAC. It's not right to think that business is a man's world. Women are more sensitive and calmer this makes us different helps us to balance and makes ladies the best partners for men. Natalia Ryzhkova CEO Gulliver Co Int Russia International authentic reports from female top managers from different countries combined with a sound scientific analysis of the growth factors for women in management. Insights across countries Highly recommended Professor Dr Jutta Rump Managing Director Institut of Employability IBE University of the Economy and Society Ludwigshafen Germany. Women need to understand the country specific codes and create their best image as topmanager using language their look and body postures. This book shows us the similarities and the differences of female images in top positions in the five nations. Great findings Muriel de Saint Sauveur President Women Masterclass France former International Marketing Communications and Diversity Director Mazars Group France. Les femmes doivent oser prendre leur juste place dans l'économie que ce soit en tant qu'entrepreneure ou en tant que cadre dirigeante. C'est une question d'équilibre social mais plus encore de potentiel de performance. Plus de femmes signifie plus de croissance et plus de diversité dans les choix stratégiques. Osez osez c'est le mot à mettre en pratique. Marie Claire Capobianco Ex membre du Comité exécutif du groupe BNP Paribas Membre du Haut Comité de Gouvernement d'Entreprise France. Chinese female executives have many strengths Great learnings also from women around the world.
