the architecturally distinctive campus of Christian Theological Seminary In the west wing of that building is Shelton Auditorium which houses the Edyvean Repertory Theatre an institution that during the 1996 1997 season celebrated its thirtieth anniversary This history tells of the dream of its founder Dr Alfred R Edyvean to establish his theatre with a purpose from its fledgling flights as the Seminary Players when Christian Theological Seminary was still the School of Religion of Butler University to its secure reputation as a professionally managed community theatre with six or seven productions a year of high quality drama These productions draw nearly 30 000 people annually from across the state The Edyvean Repertory Theatre at CTS is unique among community theatres for having been established at a theological seminary and having maintained a full season of dramatic presentations for almost thirty years This history is an effort to determine why it survived and what must be done to keep it alive 1993 saw the closing of the neighboring Starlight Musicals housed at Butler University and the Theatre Department at Indiana University Purdue University at Indianapolis

Getting to Reparations

Dorothy A. Brown, 2026-01-20 A bold manifesto arguing that there is a clear precedent for paying reparations to atone for America's original sin of slavery offering a compelling legal strategy to achieve this goal from the acclaimed author of The Whiteness of Wealth The idea of reparations is not a new or original one it is one that is baked into American history When the District of Columbia Emancipation Act of 1862 went into effect wealthy slaveowners like Margaret Barber were compensated for the loss of their enslaved workers Barber received 9 000 an equivalent to 250 000 today When a group of Italian immigrants were lynched in 1892 President Harrison compensated Italy a total of 25 000 for their deaths an equivalent to almost 766 000 today The Indian Claims Commission an arm of the federal government paid Indigenous Americans 818 million for underhandedly stealing their land in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries an equivalent to almost 350 billion today Dorothy A Brown addresses the glaring question if reparations can be achieved for others why not for Black Americans If lynching can be remedied for Italian immigrants and slaveholders compensated for losses associated with abolition and emancipation then the government's failure to provide such remedies to Black communities harmed by similar violence loss and destruction is long overdue The fight for reparations is truly a fight for the soul of America to produce the country our founding fathers idealized but never achieved Getting to Reparations makes a logical and necessary case for reparations for Black Americans It lays out a path as to how we might achieve this built on the frameworks used throughout U S history by the government to pay restitution It is now time to do the same for America's Black population

Planning Inclusive Yachts Paolo Ferrari, 2021-02-01 This book proposes a novel approach to the design of accessible and inclusive sailing yachts inspired by the principles of Design for All The goal is to allow anyone including users with disabilities and individuals belonging to the weaker segments to sail without barriers Starting from an analysis of existing pleasure boats the author identifies a series of factors limiting the accessibility or usability of external and internal spaces In turn he discusses the most suitable solutions to each By proposing an extensive set of design solutions applicable to the confined spaces on yachts and which comply with the relevant anthropometric and dimensional rules the book offers a timely snapshot of the potential benefits and applicability of an inclusive approach to yacht design setting a new reference standard for inclusive and accessible nautical design     The Handbook of Reparations Pablo De Greiff,2008 This is a comprehensive study of reparation programmes containing a blend of case study analysis thematic papers and national legislation documents from leading scholars and practitioners     Asian and Pacific Islander Americans in Congress, 1900-2017 Albin Kowalewski,2017     The Impossible Dream Valerie Benson,1982     "The Impossible Dream" K.
