GHOSH,2017 The Hungry Tide Lucy Gillen,1976 The Construction of Place in Amitav Ghosh's "The Hungry Tide" Marnie Hensler,2020-10-09 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject Literature Asia University of Freiburg English Department course On the Beach Narrating Littoral Space in Literature language English abstract This paper claims that the space of the tide country as perceived by the protagonists in The Hungry Tide is constructed through two major embedded narratives The first narrative is the legend of the goddess Bon Bibi Passed down orally from generation to generation the rhythmic legend sediments itself in the minds of the tide country people defines how they see their homeland and thus actively and repeatedly constructs and reconstructs the space of the tide country The second narrative is Nirmal s recollection of his repeated adventures to Morichjhapi Unlike the legend of Bon Bibi his adventures are transmitted in writing through his notebook Accessible to Kanai and the reader only its content shapes and constructs how both

character and reader perceive and construct the space of the historical island. However, it also works the other way around. The place of the tide country also influences the narratives that evolve around it. The Bon Bibi legend is as fluid as the tide country, being reinterpreted from generation to generation. Nirmal's notebook as well reflects the main characteristics of the tide country as it travels on water on the Megha and ultimately also disappears in water like the tide country eventually will as well. In this paper, a close textual analysis of both embedded narratives reveals how they manage to reconstruct the space of the tide country for both characters and readers, i.e., which narrative strategies are used, etc., and what distinct topographical characteristics of the tide country can be found within them. In sum, this paper claims that narratives have the ability to construct the space we live in. Cultural geography examines how places and identities are produced. It looks into how people of a certain culture and place perceive their homeland or, in reverse, how they construct it with the help of cultural artefacts. Cultural artefacts like folktales or songs can contribute to the construction of space since they describe and determine how people view and perceive the places around them. Whatever cultural artefacts people produce give insight into how they see their space. Narratives as cultural artefacts, for example, can thus show us how spaces are perceived by those who tell and consume them.

The Routledge Handbook of Refugee Narratives Evyn Lê Espiritu, Gandhi, Vinh Nguyen, 2023-02-17 This Handbook presents a transnational and interdisciplinary study of refugee narratives broadly defined. Interrogating who can be considered a refugee and what constitutes a narrative, the thirty-eight chapters included in this collection encompass a range of forcibly displaced subjects, a mix of geographical and historical contexts, and a variety of storytelling modalities. Analyzing novels, poetry, memoirs, comics, films, photography, music, social media, data, graffiti, letters, reports, eco design, video games, archival remnants, and ethnography, the individual chapters counter dominant representations of refugees as voiceless victims. Addressing key characteristics and theatics of refugee narratives, this Handbook examines how refugee cultural productions are shaped by and, in turn, shape socio-political landscapes. It will be of interest to researchers, teachers, students, and practitioners committed to engaging refugee narratives in the contemporary moment. Animalities Michael Lundblad, 2017-05-24 New and cutting-edge work in animality studies, human-animal studies, and posthumanism. Representations of animality continue to proliferate in various kinds of literary and cultural texts. This pioneering volume explores the critical interface between animal and animality studies, marking out the terrain in relation to twentieth-century literature and film. The range of texts considered here is intentionally broad, answering questions like: how do contemporary writers such as Amitav Ghosh, Terry Tempest Williams, and Indra Sinha help us to think about not only animals but also humans as animals? What kinds of creatures are being constructed by contemporary artists such as Patricia Piccinini, Alexis Rockman, and Michael Pestel? How do animalities animate such diverse texts as the poetry of two women publishing under the name of aMichael Field or an early film by Thomas Edison depicting the electrocution of a circus elephant named Topsy Connecting these issues to fields as diverse as environmental studies and ecocriticism queer theory gender studies feminist theory illness and disability studies postcolonial theory and biopolitics the volume also raises further questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work abeyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship Key Features10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in EnglishNew work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to exploreBroad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality Environmental Postcolonialism Shubhanku Kochar,Anjum Khan,2021-02-08 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title
