Soho The Artist In The City:

SoHo, the Artist in the City Charles R. Simpson, 1981 Traces the history of the New York industrial district that was transformed into a center of American contemporary art and shows how the resident artist community has succeeded in preserving the character of the neighborhood Soho Richard Kostelanetz, 2003 And New York's one of a kind urban artists colony was born The Arts Education Review of Books, 1989 Varieties of Work Phyllis L. Stewart, Muriel G. Cantor, 1982-04-01 Fifteen provocative articles by leading scholars of work and occupations show how such occupations as police work middle management taxi driving nursing and the building trade are responding to cultural organizational occupational and client pressures for change How these pressures work and what causes them are also analyzed from a viewpoint that looks at the distribution of power among different types of industry and workers Scholars and students of work and occupations should find this volume useful and interesting and a refreshing respite from books that claim to provide all the answers Contemporary Sociology Vol 13 No 1 January 1984 Great Events from History II: 1969-1992 Frank Northern Magill, 1993 Recounts original articles treating 493 topics and events in twentieth century history spanning the cultural and artistic life of the modern world Includes landmarks in the fine arts art architecture dance fashion and design journalism literature motion pictures music television and radio and theater The Studio, 1894 The Unanticipated City James R. Hudson, 1987 Analyzes the conversion of SoHo from old factories to residential work spaces and explains the reasons for this unexpected development The City as a Stage Kevin W. Green, 1983 The Visual Artist's Manual Susan A. Grode, 1984 Making art and making an art career are two different things A professional artist is responsible for the day to day business of their career such as financial management applying for grants and funding documenting work marketing promotion researching opportunities and a list of other tasks These areas are not always covered within the education system so while highly educated and skilled many visual artists are not prepared for the reality of life after art school As an artist led organization VAI is keenly aware that artists are pressed for time trying to fit their art making into daily lives that juggle family work and other commitments We hope this manual will provide you with some of the tools to make the most of the opportunities that come your way whether it be pursuing a post graduate course getting a studio entering juried exhibitions initiating your own projects or getting representation through a gallery But don't forget you should never rely on an opportunity finding you It is very much you creating them for yourself VAI is there to assist you with the many services and information channels that we offer to professional visual artists in all art forms Urban Land, 2004 New York City Martha Ellen Zenfell, 1991 Artists Live/work Space, 1981 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1874 ARTnews, 1955 TripBuilder - New York City TripBuilder, Incorporated, 1997-08 Travelers can use this easy to carry guide to find out when to go how to get there and what it will cost TripBuilder guides reveal a city's best museums shopping venues historic landmarks and children's sights Information you

Sociological Perspectives, 1988 Artists' SoHo Richard Kostelanetz, 2015-01-02 During the 1960s and 1970s in New York City young artists exploited an industrial wasteland to create spacious studios where they lived and worked redefining the Manhattan area just south of Houston Street Its use fueled not by city planning schemes but by word of mouth recommendations the area soon grew to become a world class center for artistic creation indeed the largest urban artists colony ever in America let alone the world Richard Kostelanetz's Artists SoHo not only examines why the artists came and how they accomplished what they did but also delves into the lives and works of some of the most creative personalities who lived there during that period including Nam June Paik Robert Wilson Meredith Monk Richard Foreman Hannah Wilke George MacQuinn and Alan Suicini Gallerists followed the artists in fashioning themselves their homes their buildings and even their streets into transiently prominent exhibition and performance spaces SoHo pioneer Richard Kostelanetz's extensively researched intimate history is framed within a personal memoir that unearths myriad perspectives social and cultural history the changing rules for residency and ownership the ethos of the community the physical layouts of the lofts the types of art produced venues that opened and closed the daily rhythm and the gradual invasion of new people Artists SoHo also explores how and why this fertile bohemia couldn't last forever As wealthier people paid higher prices galleries left younger artists settled elsewhere and the neighborhood became a SoHo Mall of trendy stores and restaurants Compelling and often humorous Artists SoHo provides an analysis of a remarkable neighborhood that transformed the art and culture of New York City over the past five decades Pioneering in the Urban Wilderness Jim Stratton, 1977 New York, 2007
