Scarring the Black Body Carol E. Henderson,2002 Scarring and the act of scarring are recurrent images in African American literature In Scarring the Black Body Carol E Henderson analyzes the cultural and historical implications of scarring in a number of African American texts that feature the trope of the scar including works by Sherley Anne Williams Toni Morrison Ann Petry Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright The first part of Scarring the Black Body The Call traces the process by which African bodies were Americanized through the practice of branding Henderson incorporates various materials from advertisements for the return of runaways to slave narratives to examine the cultural practice of writing the body She also considers ways in which writers and social activists including Frederick Douglass Olaudah Equiano Harriet Tubman and Sojourner Truth developed a call centered on the body s scars to demand that people of African descent be given equal rights and protection under the law In the second part of the book The Response Henderson goes on to show that more recent representations of the conditions of slavery by authors such as Williams and

Morrison extend the efforts of their predecessors by developing creative responses to those calls centered around the African American body and its scars Henderson explores Williams s reinvention of the whip scarred body in her novel Dessa Rose and provides a close analysis of Morrison s use of scar imagery in Beloved She also devotes a chapter to Petry s The Street and concludes with an investigation of the wounded black male psyche in the works of Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright Scarring the Black Body demonstrates that the creative acts of these authors bind together that which has been wounded both literally and figuratively Those who hear the voices of the ancestors are urged to connect to that part of themselves wherein wounds of the past carry a self knowledge that can alter the experiences of the present In this way the disfigured body as a cultural metaphor and social invention can come to terms with its own humanity and embodiment Encyclopedia of Gender and Society Jodi O'Brien,2008-11-26 2009 RUSA Outstanding Reference CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 Given
