Sola Scriptura Problems And Principles In Preaching Historical Texts:

Sola Scriptura Sidney Greidanus, 1970 This book deals with a key question every pastor faces nearly every week in preparing his sermons That question concerns the appropriate manner of treating the historical material of the Scriptures In the history of the Christian church this material has often served as the basis for moral lessons or intellectual truths This study presents a careful analysis of the way in which this age old controversy surfaced in the revival of redemptive historical theology in the Reformed churches in Holland between the two world wars It also presents the basis for a fresh approach and is thus exceedingly helpful for both pastors and students Back cover Sola Scriptura Sidney Greidanus, 1970 Preaching Christ from the Old Testament Sidney Greidanus, 1999-07-13 Arguing for the need both to preach Christ in every sermon and to preach regularly from the Old Testament Sidney Greidanus develops a christocentric method that will help preachers do both simultaneously Greidanus challenges Old Testament scholars to broaden their focus and to understand the Old Testament not only in its own historical context but also in the context of the New Testament Suggesting specific steps and providing concrete examples this volume provides a practical guide for preaching Christ from the Old Testament Vital Balance: The Pursuit of Professors J. J. vanderSchuit, G. Wisse, and L. H. vanderMeiden, The Drama of Preaching Eric B. Watkins, 2017-02-16 Preaching is dramatic Through it we hear the voice of the living God as he speaks to us both through the reading and the preaching of the word of God But where do the hearers of sermons fit into the drama This book suggests ways in which the drama metaphor may help to address age old questions about the centrality of the gospel and the place of the hearer in preaching As God in Christ is the central character in the biblical drama of redemption he also calls hearers to understand their role in creatively yet faithfully living according to the biblical script Thus no sermon is complete until God's redemptive work is powerfully proclaimed and his people are instructed in how they too are participating in the Missio Dei In this work Hebrews 11 is employed as a means of showing how God not only reveals his redemptive work to his people but also through them As postmodernism sets the stage of contemporary preaching The Drama of Preaching interacts with some of the particular challenges preachers face in engaging postmodern listeners that they might not only be hearers but doers of the preached word The Modern Preacher and the Ancient Text Sidney Greidanus, 1989-01-19 A fusion of biblical hermeneutics and homiletics this thorough and well researched book offers a holistic contemporary approach to the interpretation and preaching of biblical texts using all the scholarly tools available and focusing especially on literary features Greidanus develops hermeneutical and homiletical principles and then applies them to four specific genres Hebrew narratives prophetic literature the Gospels and the Epistles Christocentric Preaching Meets the Historical Jesus Devon Duffield, 2024-12-30 The Christocentric homiletic is considered one of the leading contemporary approaches within the evangelical hermeneutic and homiletic society This is due to the convincing theological justification practical guidance and demonstrative examples of Christocentric sermons from three North American scholars

Sidney Greidanus Edmund Clowney and Bryan Chapell Its popularity however has not made this approach immune to criticism Opponents of the Christocentric approach often criticize the preaching model for operating on a general interpretive level having repetitive sermon goals and delivering sermons that lack adequate application among other things The suggested antidote to these issues in current scholarship is for the Christocentric homiletic to become less Christocentric and more Theocentric This book enters the current homiletical debate on Christocentric preaching by placing the homiletical method in conversation with the field of Christology In doing so it points out that the Christocentric homiletic is embedded in a Christology from above contributing to its strengths and weaknesses This book suggests that if the Christocentric method takes the Christologies from below of N T Wright and Wolfhart Pannenberg seriously it can address specific weaknesses and find resources to enhance some of its strengths without negating its central conviction of preaching Christ in every sermon It defends the unique proposal that the Christocentric method can address its criticisms by becoming more Christocentric and not more Theocentric

Redemptive-Historical Hermeneutics and Homiletics Yung Hoon Hyun, 2015-04-14 This book focuses on redemptive historical hermeneutics and homiletics within New Testament theology This is a valuable legacy of the Reformed tradition despite differences in interpreting and preaching Bible texts that surfaced in Holland 1920s and 1930s and the United States 1970s onwards before influencing Korean Reformed churches The background origin distinctiveness and development of these theological debates is explored and evaluated before the features of redemptive history in Korea are identified The influence of Western redemptive historical scholars on the Korean debate are also analyzed Here is a major and contemporary contribution to reformed historical hermeneutics and homiletics that is relevant for Korean Reformed churches but also for all Reformed churches worldwide

A Hermeneutics of Ultimacy James H. Olthuis, 1987 This book proposes that the Bible's central claim to answer our ultimate life and death questions is the clue for a method of interpretation which fits with the nature of the text as a canonic whole A faithful hermeneutic of Scripture will be pastoral in intention approaching Scripture on the level of certitude The book is unusual in that it attempts to forge a synthesis between an evangelical concern for biblical authority with modern critical concerns to do justice to the phenomena of Scripture Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies in Toronto Speaking to Life's Problems Lloyd Merle Perry, Charles M.
