Energy Justice Alicia Phillips, Laura Kaschny, 2025-01-08 This book offers an innovative exploration of energy justice from concept to action highlighting its role as a crucial tool for navigating the complexities of a just and sustainable energy transition The book is timely and as the global energy transition rapidly progresses it will serve as an essential resource offering practical guidance to advancing a just and sustainable energy future The perspectives presented in this book are presented by early career energy justice scholars from around the world each highlighting and proposing ways to navigate the transition The discussion focuses on three key themes the integration and repurposing of energy infrastructures with the use of technology the need for affordable and accessible energy services and the promotion of responsible governance through effective policymaking and corporate social responsibility At the heart of this book is the presentation of the Toolkit to Achieve the Just Transition using the Energy Justice Framework Solar Technology. Future Energy Research Priorities Kassan Kaselema, 2022-01-17 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2019 in the subject Geography Earth Science Physical Geography Geomorphology Environmental Studies language English abstract The paper is developed with intentions to evaluate energy supply systems in African poorest countries and a comparison to those that have amicable energy systems The focus is however emphasized on Malawi as the country is hardly hit by energy poverty and its subsequent economic status currently ranked among top ten poorest African countries justify the goal to discuss on the renewable energy technology to be implemented as the matter of agency Malawi mostly relies upon biomass as a source of energy to either cook light or even for industrial sector With the increasing population growth which surpasses that of the world growth currently at 3.3% as of August 2014 statistical information proves the need for a proactive approach towards combating energy situation which is currently sustained by intermittent supplement of ESCOM statutory company The situation however is unreliable as the electricity supply is almost similar to disco lights thereby affecting industrial manufacturing
