The Brakhage lectures Stan Brakhage, 2010-01-13 Je vais vous mentir comme le font les camelots Je vais vous raconter une histoire dans le but de dévoiler la vérité Mon histoire est bien évidemment basée sur des faits Cependant il est vrai qu'un fait touchant un monde inconnu ne peut être que fabriqué Je vais par conséquent produire une fiction en fait The Brakhage

Lectures Stan Brakhage, 1972 Stan Brakhage Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018 Essays on the work of this iconic experimental filmmaker from a variety of scholars Stan Brakhage's body of work counts as one of the most important within post-war avant-garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage's films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage's art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage's art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalized Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocular centrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophize in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realizing Deleuze's image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the quest of art as spiritual revelation this book not only addresses scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori A Critical Cinema 4 Scott MacDonald, 2005 A Critical Cinema 4 is the fourth volume in Scott MacDonald's Critical Cinema series the most extensive in depth exploration of independent cinema available in English In this new set of interviews MacDonald once again engages filmmakers in detailed discussions of their films and of the personal experiences and political and theoretical currents that have shaped their work The interviews are arranged to express the remarkable diversity of modern independent cinema and the network of interconnections within the community of filmmakers A Critical Cinema 4 includes the most extensive interview with the late Stan Brakhage yet published a conversation with P Adams Sitney about his arrival on the New York independent film scene a detailed discussion with Peter Kubelka about the experience of making Our African Journey a conversation with Jill Godmilow and Harun Farocki on modern political documentary Jim McBride's first extended published conversation in thirty years a discussion with Abigail Child about her evolution from television documentarian to master editor and the first extended interview with Chuck Workman This volume also contains discussions with Chantal Akerman about her place trilogy Lawrence Brose on his examination of Oscar Wilde's career Hungarian Peter Forgács about his transformation of European home movies into video operas Iranian born Shirin Neshat on working between two cultures and Ellen Spiro about exploring America with her video camera and her dog Each interview is supplemented by an introductory overview of the filmmaker's contributions A detailed filmography and a selected bibliography complete the volume

Hollis Frampton Michael Zryd, 2023-05-09 Hollis Frampton was an American filmmaker photographer and theorist who bridged the experimental film and contemporary art worlds in the 1960s and 1970s Best known for avant garde films including Zorns Lemma 1970 and nostalgia 1971 Frampton spent his later years working on the unfinished epic Magellan a monumental cycle that used the metaphor of Ferdinand Magellan's circumnavigation of the world to rethink the natures and meanings of history modernity and cinema Frampton's career was cut short by cancer at age 48 with his vast ambitions for the project left incomplete This book is a groundbreaking and comprehensive account of this remarkable figure's work in its totality from Frampton's earliest films through Magellan Michael Zryd explores the connections linking Frampton's art and thought to other media forms histories and cultural frameworks He foregrounds Frampton's notion of the infinite cinema which redefined the parameters of the medium to encompass all forms of moving image and sound media across the past and future of cinematic possibility Zryd analyzes Frampton's ambivalent relationship with modernism and the Enlightenment showing how the artist navigated between attraction to radical artistic investigation and awareness of this tradition's implication in colonialism and other oppressive power structures Shedding new light on

Frampton's project of exploring and critiquing how cinema attempts to capture and understand the world this book also considers his significance for contemporary art

Framing Faust Inez Hedges, 2009-03-10 In this interdisciplinary cultural history that encompasses film literature music and drama Inez Hedges follows the thread of the Faustian rebel in the major intellectual currents of the last hundred years She presents Faust and his counterpart Mephistopheles as antagonistic yet complementary figures whose productive conflict was integral to such phenomena as the birth of narrative cinema the rise of modernist avant gardes before World War II and feminist critiques of Western cultural traditions Framing Faust Twentieth Century Cultural Struggles pursues a dialectical approach to cultural history Using the probing lens of cultural studies Hedges shows how claims to the Faustian legacy permeated the struggle against Nazism in the 1930s while infusing not only the search for socialist utopias in Russia France and Germany but also the quest for legitimacy on both sides of the Cold War divide after 1945 Hedges balances new perspectives on such well known works as Thomas Mann's Dr Faustus and Jack Kerouac's Dr Sax with discussions of previously overlooked twentieth century expressions of the Faust myth including American film noir and the Faust films of Stan Brakhage She evaluates musical compositions Hanns Eisler's Faust libretto the opera Votre Faust by Henri Pousseur and Michel Butor and Alfred Schnittke's Faust Cantata as well as works of fiction and drama in French and German many of which have heretofore never been discussed outside narrow disciplinary confines Enhanced by twenty four illustrations Framing Faust provides a fascinating and focused narrative of some of the major cultural struggles of the past century as seen through the Faustian prism and establishes Faust as an important present day frame of reference

Amelio,1974 The Internet and Everyone John Christopher Jones,2000 In this extraordinary book a series of letters written at the beginning of an era in which the book has lost the significance it had and in which electronic correspondence in which anyone may join becomes the medium of the moment John Chris Jones explores the potential of the internet as the instigator of a new kind of life The book is in fact a record of an electronic text an attempt to find a new form of writing which acknowledges the significance of the connectedness and immediacy of computer networks In the author s words it is a record of trying to think some of the unthinkableables that our technologies have brought before us in this pause before the post industrial breakfast Based on an analysis of automation the replacement of human skills by machines as industrialisation was the replacement of human effort the possibilities opened up by the transmission of information by electricity and a refuel to accept that the virtual world is in any sense less real than the world excluding computers Jones sees the internet as making possible an awakening from the frozen dreaming of industrial life Canadian Journal of Film Studies ,2005 Film Culture ,1974
