The Brazen Oracle Format Series:

Studies in the Historical Phonology of Asian Languages William G. Boltz, Michael C. Shapiro, 1991-01-01 This volume owes its genesis to a series of lectures on various aspects of the historical phonology of Asian languages sponsored by the Asian Linguistics Colloquium of the Department of Asian Languages and Literature of the University of Washington in Seattle. The volume includes papers on both theoretical and applied aspects of Asian linguistics and topics examined include vowel harmony, dialect variation and inherent variability, historical reconstruction based on written records, historical reconstruction based on the comparative method, accentology and language standardization. While some of the papers are comparative in nature, others deal with effects of language contact on phonological systems. Languages and language families dealt with are Indo Aryan, Dravidian, Chinese, Uralic, Korean and Tai. The Brazen Oracle Mel Jackson, 1997

Writing and Literacy in Chinese, Korean and Japanese Insup Taylor, Martin M. Taylor, 1995-12-07 Chinese, Japanese, South and North Koreans in East Asia have a long intertwined and distinguished cultural history and have achieved or are in the process of achieving spectacular economic success. Together these three peoples make up one quarter of the world population. They use a variety of unique and fascinating writing systems: logographic Chinese characters of ancient origin as well as phonetic systems of syllabaries and alphabets. The book describes often in comparison with English how the Chinese, Korean and Japanese writing systems originated and developed, how each relates to its spoken language, how it is learned or taught, how it can be computerized and how it relates to the past and present literacy, education and culture of its users. Intimately familiar with the three East Asian cultures, Insup Taylor with the assistance of Martin Taylor has written an accessible and highly readable book. Writing and Literacy in Chinese, Korean and Japanese is intended for academic readers, students in East Asian Studies, linguistics, education, psychology as well as for the general public, parents, business, government. Readers of the book will learn about the interrelated cultural histories of China, Korea and Japan but mainly about the various writing systems: some exotic, some familiar, some simple, some complex but all fascinating. Books by Artists Sarah Bodman, 1999 Catalogue to accompany the exhibition at the University of the West of England, Bristol 21-30 September 1999

A Study of Chinese Characters Wang Guiyuan, 2023-12-22 As the first volume of a two volume set on Chinese ancient characters and newly unearthed literature, this book brings together the author's research articles that discuss the development of Chinese characters and the tradition of Chinese palaeography. The 23 chapters in this book focus on two aspects of Chinese characters. The first 13 chapters centre on the evolution of Chinese characters, analysing the composition system and its transformation, the motivation and mechanisms behind its evolution as well as the methodology of the study of ancient characters. The subsequent 10 chapters mainly revolve around Shuowen Jiezi, one of the oldest character dictionaries in China. The author offers a novel understanding of the core issues related to this most important philological work such as the version of the dictionary, misunderstandings in previous scholarship and its relations with other palaeographical materials.
