The Brooke Fauquier Loudoun And Alexandria Artillery:

The Brooke, Fauquier, Loudoun, and Alexandria Artillery Michael J. Andrus, 1990 The Alexandria Artillery was organized in 1861 under the command of Captain Delaware Kemper as a Virginia Light Artillery unit. In 1862 it was under the command of Captain David L Smoot and in 1864 it was assigned to the 18th Battalion of the Virginia Heavy Artillery as Company E     Confederate Artillery Organizations F. Ray Sibley, Jr., 2014-09-08 Confederate Artillery Organizations An Alphabetical Listing of the Officers and Batteries of the Confederacy 1861-1865 is a remarkable immensely useful and exceedingly rare book containing the names of the officers and every Confederate artillery unit. It is so rare that most scholars in the field don't even know of its existence. It was originally published as simply Confederate Artillery Organizations by the U.S. War Department in 1898 one of Marcus J. Wright's compilation aids to help assemble and organize the massive publication that would appear as the 128 volume The War of the Rebellion: A Compilation of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies 1880-1901 known to researchers and students alike as simply Official Records. Editor Ray Sibley spent more than a decade researching the thousands of entries correcting mistakes and adding many artillery units and additional officers unknown to the original compilers more than a century ago. Sibley utilized archival records, manuscripts, letters, diaries, and other sources to verify the original work, correct mistakes, and add further useful information in the form of hundreds of valuable footnotes. This new updated and easy to use reference work sets forth the lineage of the Confederate artillery. It lists in alphabetical order individual batteries to artillery regiments the names and alternate names for the batteries and the names of the men who led them. Also included are the dates of acceptance into Confederate service for each unit. Most companies have an annotation that includes an alternate name if there was one and the date if a unit disbanded or was merged into another organization. The annotations for officers include date of appointment, date of promotion to a higher grade, if any date of transfers, if any date dropped from rolls if any, and date relieved of command if any. Confederate Artillery Organizations also contains four rare and hard to find lists of Confederate artillery officers: Memorandum of Artillery Officers, C.S.A. List of Officers Corps of Artillery, C.S. Army on U.S. Register of 1861, Superintendents of Armories and Military Store Keeper of Ordnance. These lists illustrate the ranking of each officer in his respective grade. The extensive bibliography prepared by Mr. Sibley is an invaluable guide to Civil War historiography. Scholars, researchers, and students of the Civil War will be thankful Ray Sibley turned his considerable talents to this project. His tireless efforts made sure this rare book got back into print including all digital formats and turned what was once a valuable rare work into a reference book that is now both widely available and absolutely indispensable.     Gettysburg Rebels Tom McMillan, 2017-06-12 Gettysburg Rebels is the gripping true story of five young men who grew up in Gettysburg, moved south to Virginia in the 1850s, joined the Confederate army and returned home as foreign invaders for the great battle in July 1863. Drawing on rarely seen documents and family histories as well as military service records and contemporary accounts, Tom McMillan delves into the backgrounds of Wesley Culp Henry Wentz and the three Hoffman brothers in a riveting tale of Civil War drama and intrigue Amherst Artillery, Albemarle Artillery, and Sturdivant's Battery William Cullen Sherwood, Richard Ludlum Nicholas, 1996 Sturdivant's Battery was organized 1862 as an independent battery. In 1863 it was assigned as Company A 2nd in the 12th Battalion of the Virginia Light Artillery. It again became an independent battery under the command of Captain Nathaniel A Sturdivant until early 1865 when the battalion dissolved Dictionary of Virginia Biography: Bland-Cannon John T. Kneebone, Sara B. Bearss, 1998 This book is a multivolume historical reference work intended for teachers students librarians historians journalists genealogists museum professionals and other researchers who have a need for biographical information about those Virginians who regardless of place of birth or death made significant contributions to the history or culture of their locality state or nation. Virginia is defined by the state's current geographic boundaries plus Kentucky prior to statehood in 1792 and West Virginia prior to statehood in 1863. With a few exceptions no person is included who did not live a significant portion of his or her life in Virginia. P vi The 1st and 2nd Stuart Horse Artillery Robert H. Moore, 1985 The 1st Stuart Horse Artillery was organized in 1861 under the command of Captain James Breathed. It was next commanded by Captain Philip Preston Johnson and then finally by Captain Daniel Shanks Powhatan, Salem and Courtney Henrico Artillery Richard L. Nicholas, Joseph Servis, 1997 The Powhatan Artillery was organized in Powhatan County in 1861 and also known as Captain Dance's Company or Capt. Willis Jefferson Dance's Company Virginia Light Artillery. The Salem Artillery was organized in 1861 in Roanoke County and was also known as the Salem Flying Artillery or Capt. Charles B. They raided Union supply lines, picket posts and camps ranging from Maryland in the north to the Rappahannock

River on the south to the Potomac River on the east and the western edge of the Shenandoah Valley Mosby's Command was also called the 43rd Virginia Cavalry Battalion 10th and 19th Battalions of Heavy Artillery Jeffrey C. Weaver, 1996 The 10th and 19th Battalions of Heavy Artillery were formed in 1862 and existed until the surrender in 1865 The Confederate Order of Battle: The Army of Northern Virginia F.
