 man's religious complex his world and his fate His primary vision is to be found in his last five novels Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Devils A Raw Youth and The Brothers Karamazov This volume culminates twenty years of studying teaching and writing on Dostoevsky Here George A Panichas critically analyzes the religious themes and meanings of the author's major works Focusing on the pervasive spiritual consciousness at play Panichas views Dostoevsky not as a religious destiny The Burden of Vision George A. Panichas, 1985 Christian Fiction and Religious Realism in the Novels of Dostoevsky Wil van den Bercken, 2011-01-01 This study offers a literary analysis and theological evaluation of the Christian themes in the five great novels of Dostoevsky Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Adolescent The Devils and The Brothers Karamazov Dostoevsky's ambiguous treatment of religious issues in his literary works strongly differs from the slavophile Orthodoxy of his journalistic writings In the novels Dostoevsky deals with Christian basic values which are presented via a unique tension between the fictionality of the Christian characters and the readers experience of the existential reality of their religious problems Dostoevsky and the Dynamics of Religious Experience Malcolm Jones, 2005-09-05 Dostoevsky and the Dynamics of Religious Experience deals with the religious dimension of the novelist's life and fiction The book is structured through six clearly defined and self-reliant essays that take into account past and current criticism and offers a close textual analysis on Dostoevsky's works including The Double Notes from Underground

Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Devils and an in depth study of The Brothers Karamazov Profane Challenge and Orthodox Response in Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment Janet G. Tucker, 2008-01-01 Profane Challenge and Orthodox Response in Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment presents for the first time an examination of this great novel as a work aimed at winning back target readers young contemporary radicals from Utilitarianism nihilism and Utopian Socialism Dostoevsky framed the battle in the context of the Orthodox Church and oral tradition versus the West He relied on knowledge of the Gospels as text received orally forcing readers to react emotionally not rationally and thus undermining the very basis of his opponents arguments Dostoevsky saves Raskolnikov underscoring the inadequacy of rational thought and reminding his readers of a heritage discarded at their peril This volume should be of special interest to secondary and university students as well as to readers interested in literature particularly in Russian literature and Dostoevsky

Dostoevsky P. H. Brazier, 2016-06-02 As a writer and prophet Dostoevsky was no academic theologian yet his writings are deeply theological his life beliefs even his epilepsy all had a role in generating his theology and eschatology Dostoevsky's novels are riven with paradoxes are deeply dialectical and represent a criticism of religion offered in the service of the gospel In this task he presented a profound understanding and portrait of humanity Dostoevsky's novels chart the movement of the human into death either the movement through paradox and Christlikeness into Christ's cross a soteriology often characterized by the apophatic negation and self denial what we may term the Mark of Abel leading to salvation and resurrection or conversely the movement of those who refuse Christ's invitation to be redeemed and continue to fall into a self willed death and a self generated hell the Mark of Cain This eschatology becomes a theological axiom which he unceasingly warned people of in his mature works Startlingly original stripped of all religious pretence some prostitutes and criminals might just have a better understanding of salvation than some of the pietistic wealthy and cultured classes Dostoevsky as a prophet forewarned of the politicized humanistic delusions of the twentieth century a prophet crying out through the wilderness Dostoevsky Studies, 1998 Slavic Review, 1979 Coverage of Russian Eurasian and East
