Michael Marquardt, 1999 Revelation is so central to Mormonism that one might presume that the study of original texts is an exhausted field The remarkable truth is that little has yet been done in this area An analysis of the earliest manuscripts and first printed versions often in newspapers helps establish the original setting and often the intention of the revelations many of which have been greatly changed by later textual modifications By knowing more of the history of the early church Marquardt hopes to reveal new and important vistas concerning both early Mormonism and the concept of revelation itself
