

The Break-Up

'I don't love you anymore'

She says as she avoids your embrace

'Get out' she screams pointing to the door

But there are tears streaming down her face

Throw your things in an old suitcase

Remembering how her love used to be

Feel the tears on your own face

Say to yourself, there's no love for me

She stares past you as you walk out the door

Down the stairs and out to the street

Still it is her you always will adore

Her, and her love that was so sweet

Walking down the street, crying aloud

Wondering how love could go so wrong

People pointing, attracting a crowd

You stop sobbing and try to be strong

But being strong is harder than it seems

With her love, also went your hope

She shattered your life and killed your dreams

You don't know if you'll ever be able to cope

The days pass but the pain still grows

Till that fateful morning when you awake

And say to yourself, if that, s how love goes

You'll never again make that mistake

And just as your life gets back on track

The doorbell rings and she's standing there

Crying 'please, please take me back'

You almost say yes but you don't dare

Loving her again would only cause pain

You tell her 'I'm sorry but no'

Crying, she runs out into the rain

Still, you're sad to see her go

The Breaking of Style Helen Vendler, 1995 Lucid and elegant a tour de force A O Scott Nation Three lectures on the fraught process of poetic development from a titan of contemporary criticism Style is the material body of lyric poetry To cast off an earlier style is to commit an act of violence against the creative self Why do poets so often make these dramatic breaks In her 1994 Richard Ellman Lectures Helen Vendler investigates poets' motives for inventing a new voice along with their means of doing so Exploring three archetypal ruptures she yields a new view of the interplay of moral emotional and intellectual forces in each poet's work Gerard Manley Hopkins's invention of sprung rhythm marks a radical break with his early style Rhythm Vendler shows us is at the heart of Hopkins's aesthetic and sprung rhythm is his symbol for danger difference and the shock of the beautiful In Seamus Heaney's work she identifies clear shifts in grammatical atmosphere from one poem to the next from nounness to the betweenness of an adverbial style shifts whose moral and political implications come under scrutiny here And finally Vendler looks at Jorie Graham's departure from short lines to numbered lines to squared long lines of sentences marking a move from deliberation to cinematic freeze framing to coverage each with its own meaning in this poet's career Throughout Vendler reminds us that what distinguishes successful poetry is a mastery of language at all levels including the rhythmic the grammatical and the graphic A lucid reading of three poets and a superb exposition of the craft of poetry The Breaking of Style revives our lapsed sense of what style means
