Carruthers, 2011-04-25 Witnesses to the disappearance of a text palimpsest manuscripts bear the marks of their own genesis with their original inscription rubbed out and written over on the same parchment This collection explores analogies of erasure and rewriting observed in editorial and literary practices underlying the production of texts from medieval England Twenty-four Lays from the French Middle Ages, 2016 The first complete collection of extant Medieval French Lays Lays are short typically 600-1000 lines rhymed tales of love and chivalry The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation, and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re-shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Middle English Breton Lays Anne Laskaya, Eve Salisbury, 1995 This volume is the first to make the Middle English Breton lays available to teachers and students of the Middle Ages Breton lays were produced by or after the fashion of Marie de France in the twelfth century and claim to be literary versions of lays sung by ancient Bretons to the accompaniment of the harp The poems edited in this volume are considered distinctly English Breton lays because of their focus on the family values of late medieval England With the volume's helpful glosses, notes, introductions, and appendices, the door is opened for students to study Middle English poetry and the medieval family alike Medieval Insular Romance Judith Elizabeth Weiss, Jennifer Fellows, Morgan Dickson, 2000 Major themes explored are narratives of the disguised prince and the reinvention of stories for different tastes and periods These studies cover a wide chronological range and familiar and unfamiliar texts and topics The disguised prince is a theme linking several articles from early Anglo-Norman romances through later English ones like King Edward and the Shepherd to a late 16th-century recasting of the Havelok story as a Tudor celebration of Gloriana Translation in its widest sense the way romance can reinvent stories for different tastes and periods is another running theme The opening introductory article considers the topic of translation theoretically concerned to stimulate further research on how insular romances were transferred between vernaculars and literary systems while other essays consider Lovelich's Merlin a poem translating its Arthurian material to the poet's contemporary London milieu Chaucer and Breton lays in England Contributors
