The Bug Stops Here:

Stop Here Beverly Gologorsky, 2013-11-19 Ava Mila and Rosalyn all work at Murray's Diner in Long Island. They are friends and coworkers struggling to hold together their disordered lives. While Ava privately grieves the loss of her husband in the first Iraq War, Mila struggles to dissuade her seventeen-year-old daughter from enlisting in the second. Rosalyn works as an escort by night until love and illness conspire to disrupt the tenuous balance she'd found and the past she'd kept at a safe distance. The promise of a new relationship with a coworker soon begins to restore Ava's faith in her own ability to feel and Mila learns through wrenching loss that children must learn from their own mistakes. But ultimately it is love for one another and for their wayward families that sustains them through the pain and uncertainty of a world with no easy answers. With tender unadorned prose and a supremely human sympathy for the triumphs and defeats of everyday life in this long awaited second novel, Beverly Gologorsky delivers a moving and incisive story about loss, friendship and healing in the shadow of a seemingly endless war.

The Pittsburgh Way to Efficient Healthcare Naida Grunden, 2007-12-13 America's healthcare system needs to change. Not only does our country spend 16 percent of its gross domestic product on healthcare but despite spending more than other industrialized countries our general health lags behind. While we have plenty of data identifying where healthcare in America falls short we've precious little practical hands on information about how to fix it. In The Pittsburgh Way to Efficient Healthcare Naida Grunden provides a ingenious and optimistic look at how principles borrowed from industry can be applied to make healthcare safer and in doing so make it more effective and less costly. The book is a compilation of case studies from units in different hospitals around the Pittsburgh region that successfully applied industrial principles to the benefit of patients and the satisfaction of employees. The Pittsburgh Way to Efficient Healthcare is written for all healthcare stakeholders from clinicians to insurers to employers to those who have the greatest stake in healthcare quality improvement the patients.
