Aerial Propaganda and the Wartime Occupation of France, 1914-18 Bernard Wilkin,2016-09-13 Aerial Propaganda and the Wartime Occupation of France 1914 1918 explores the combined role played by the French and British Governments and Armies in creating and distributing millions of aerial newspapers and leaflets aimed at the French population trapped behind German lines Drawing on extensive research and French German and British primary sources the book highlights a previously unknown aspect of psychological warfare that challenges the established interpretation that the occupied populations lived in a state of total isolation and that the Allied governments had no desire to provide them with morale support Instead a very different picture emerges from this study which demonstrates that aerial propaganda not only played a fundamental role in raising morale in the occupied territories but also fuelled resistance and clandestine publications This book demonstrates that the existing historiographical portrayal of the occupied civilian as an uninformed victim must be replaced by a more nuanced interpretation   The Cadaver Factory Kenneth Jarrett Singleton,2004-09 Jack Rally is an eighteen year old boy who is evil and witty He receives an opportunity from an older film maker named Mr Bigsley whose films are films of actual murders Jack takes the opportunity and runs with it becoming a master of his murderous profession Jack the brutal young man that he is enjoys murdering and causing havoc in this setting of a more brutal future for mankind and mankindas ways The tale can be called a psychotic masterpiece and is unique in its content psychological base and theme
