Studies in the Five Books of Moses Dr. Martin

Sicker, 2020-10-19 The five studies in this volume focus on aspects of the narratives in the Five Books of Moses The Pentateuch that have frequently been glossed over by commentators ancient and modern and remain contentious to this very day These studies address issues such as the complex triangular relationships between Sarah Abraham and Hagar as depicted in the book of Genesis the bridegroom of blood episode in the story of Moses and his Midianite wife Zipporah as related in the book of Exodus the meaning and implications of the Golden Rule of biblical ethics as set forth in the book of Leviticus the zealotry of Phinehas as seen from different perspectives in the book of Numbers and the differences between the episodes of the Israelite spies as depicted in the books of Numbers and Deuteronomy Although these studies do not claim to resolve the issues they examine it is their purpose to stimulate further interest in the complexities of the ancient biblical narratives and the hidden insights about human nature they provide

Between Faith and Reason Dr. Martin

Sicker, 2020-07-13 The studies in this volume discuss some of the issues implicit but not resolved in the Hebrew Scriptures including the problems inherent in the topics of theology and religious philosophy as discussed and argued by scholars for more than two millennia The studies address the problem of philosophy the troublesome issues of moral autonomy and divine omniscience and theodicy from a Judaic perspective In addition it includes a study of the biblical story of the Golden Calf and its religious implications that are more complex than a cursory reading of the biblical text will suggest Finally it includes a discussion of the often misunderstood concepts of the prophet and prophecy as set forth in the biblical texts Although this book does not and cannot resolve the philosophical and theological issues that have persisted through the millennia it hopes to make clear how these issues have been wrestled with from a Judaic perspectives which will have relevance with regard to the perspectives on these matters of other monotheistic faiths
