Africa's Great North Road in a VW Camper Ted Jones, Emma Selig Jones, 2012 Emma and I most cordially invite you to accompany us as our special arm chair guest on an overland journey through the most exciting continent on the Planet Earth We shall begin our journey in Cape Town South Africa in the fall of 1964 During the following ten months we will travel and camp along Africa's Great North Road A variety of recently created nations and peoples a few still struggling to be free will be visited among them South Africa Rhodesia now Zimbabwe Zambia Tanzania Kenya Uganda and the Congo There are at present more than 700 separate tribes living south of the Great Sahara Desert Obviously all of them cannot be included However we will visit and camp out with the typical African where he lives whether it be an Afrikaner living in one of the exclusive multi level homes cut into the rock cliffs overlooking the Bay of Cape Town surrounded by twelve foot walls capped with broken glass and razor wire or a Wanderobo tribesman dressed in a loincloth and carrying a bow and sheath of poisoned arrows met along a primitive dusty track running through the Bush country of Tanzania Our self contained VW camper gave us the freedom to camp along the streets of any city or village or along the track where Native Africans were living much as they have for many hundreds of years Please be prepared watching people and so called wild animals can take many hours and in some instances the supply of daylight runs out Frequently camp was made along the track out in the Bush and was visited by elephants during the night or a pride of lions stopping by to sharpen their claws on our tires In one instance several elephants stripped branches off a tree under which we were camped not one of them touched the camper It was not unusual to be awakened early in the morning by curious men women and children who wondered what we were doing curious but quiet and polite We never experienced an unpleasant incident while camped out in the Bush Getting lost in the Congo could have been a fatal mistake My lack of attention exposed us to an outlaw group of renegades left over from the Tanzania Uganda War A serious effort has been made throughout to record the details and opinions as the events took place and our conclusions were formulated The events we think have been accurately recorded The opinions represent our personal interpretations and tentative conclusions It is our sincere hope that an open minded reading of our book will increase the degree of public conscious awareness with respect to the critical predicament of the African peoples their culture environment wildlife and other natural resources

Not a Happy Camper Mindy Schneider, 2008-05-20 A hilarious memoir of the author's terrible and wonderful summer at a Maine sleepaway camp in 1974 The Wall Street Journal For eight unforgettable weeks at Camp Kin a Hurra thirteen year old Mindy Schneider and her eccentric band of friends including Autumn Evening Schwartz the daughter of hippies who communicates with the dead and the sleep dancing bibliophile Betty Gilbert keep busy feuding in color wars failing at sports and uncovering their camp's hidden past As Mindy focuses on landing the perfect boyfriend and longs for her first kiss she unexpectedly stumbles across something infinitely grander herself Set in what now seems an almost impossibly innocent time the 1970s this sweet tale takes a nostalgic look back at the experience of attending sleepaway camp through the eyes of a 13 year old Jewish girl Schneider succeeds in provoking gentle flashbacks to a simpler shared time of teenage angst and hormone surges before cable television all recalled in a humorous tone Publishers Weekly Charming and hilarious Captures both the awkwardness and the magic of that age Jen Lancaster Cape Cod National Seashore Park United States.
