The Caravaggio Obsession Oliver T. Banks, 1984      The Caravaggio Obsession Oliver T. Banks, 1984 Kriminalroman
The Caravaggio Obsession Oliver Banks, 1984 ISBN 0896215385 LCCN 845977      The Caravaggio Obsession Oliver T. Banks, 2005 Three art robberies are carried out in Rome and some of the paintings mysteriously unreported turn up at a New York auction When the auction house's art expert begins to show too much interest in them he is murdered His friend art historian Amos Hatcher investigates      The Moment of Caravaggio Michael Fried, 2010-08-17 This is a groundbreaking examination of one of the most important artists in the Western tradition by one of the leading art historians and critics of the past half century In his first extended consideration of the Italian Baroque painter Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio 1573 1610 Michael Fried offers a transformative account of the artist's revolutionary achievement Based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts delivered at the National Gallery of Art The Moment of Caravaggio displays Fried's unique combination of interpretive brilliance historical seriousness and theoretical sophistication providing sustained and unexpected readings of a wide range of major works from the early Boy Bitten by a Lizard to the late Martyrdom of Saint Ursula And with close to 200 color images The Moment of Caravaggio is as richly illustrated as it is closely argued The result is an electrifying new perspective on a crucial episode in the history of European painting Focusing on the emergence of the full blown gallery picture in Rome during the last decade of the sixteenth century and the first decades of the seventeenth Fried draws forth an expansive argument one that leads to a radically revisionist account of Caravaggio's relation to the self portrait of the role of extreme violence in his art as epitomized by scenes of decapitation and of the deep structure of his epoch defining realism Fried also gives considerable attention to the art of Caravaggio's great rival Annibale Carracci as well as to the work of Caravaggio's followers including Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi Bartolomeo Manfredi and Valentin de Boulogne      Caravaggio in Film and Literature Laura Rorato, 2017-07-05 Although fictional responses to Caravaggio date back to the painter's lifetime 1571 1610 it was during the second half of the twentieth century that interest in him took off outside the world of art history In this new monograph the first book length study of Caravaggio's recent impact Rorato provides a panoramic overview of his appropriation by popular culture The extent of the Caravaggio myth and its self perpetuating nature are brought out by a series of case studies involving authors and directors from numerous countries Italy Great Britain America Canada France and Norway and literary and filmic texts from a number of genres from straightforward tellings of his life to crime fiction homoerotic film and postcolonial literature      The Age of Caravaggio Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1985      Text Into Image, 1997 Text into Image Image into Text is a truly interdisciplinary publication Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts one which has lost nothing of its fascination as the debate has expanded in numerous forms from antiquity into the realm of postmodern theory they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German Studies French Studies English Studies Art History and Film Studies Given their backgrounds each of the contributors can offer a different perspective upon the core issue of translation between media but perhaps most valuable is the combination of perspectives made possible by the arrangement of the volume into sections dealing with aspects of the image text debate In the same way that the volume gains by ranging across traditional disciplinary boundaries so it also gains from dealing with a wide range of historical material from to take only one possible route Baroque iconography through Romantic imagery to Expressionist agony

Text Into Image, Image Into Text Jeffrey Morrison, Florian Krobb, 1997 This is a truly interdisciplinary work Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German studies French studies English studies art history and film studies in literature etc

Principles of Art History Writing David Carrier, 1991 Principles of Art History Writing traces the changes in the way in which writers about art represent the same works These differ in such deep ways as to raise the question of whether those at the beginning of the process even saw the same things as those at the end did Carrier uses four case studies to identify and explain changing styles of restoration and the history of interpretation of selected works by Piero Caravaggio and van Eyck Back cover
