better be off for they are picking my tracks up fast He darted off into the undergrowth on the opposite side of the clearing vanishing as suddenly and noiselessly as he had appeared A few seconds later the deserted clearing was invaded by a scouting party of ten lads ranging in years from twelve to sixteen They were all attired in similar uniforms to the leader whom they were tracing with but one exception they wore their Be Prepared badges on the left arm above the elbow Some of them were only entitled to affix the motto part of the badge the scroll inscribed with the motto These latter were the second class scouts of the Eagle Patrol The exception to the badge bearers was a tall well knit lad with a sunny face and wavy brown hair His badge was worn on the left arm as were the others but it had a strip of white braid sewn beneath it This indicated that the bearer was the corporal of the patrol As the group of flushed panting lads emerged into the sandy space the corporal looked sharply about him Almost at once his eye encountered the spoor left by the preceding lad Here s the trail boys he shouted and to judge by the fresh look of the break in this branch it can t have been placed here very long
