Tastes of Justice

Francis Maravillas, Marnie Badham, Stephen Loo, Madeleine Collie, 2025-12-29 Tastes of Justice reveals the diversity of creative and cultural practices in contemporary food art and performances in and between Asia and Australia. It examines the ways in which these engender new frameworks for the sensuous affective social and material dimensions of the alimentary in creative practice. It interleaves scholarly chapters by artists, curators, theorists, and historians with artists' perspectives in the form of visual essays, recipes, and case studies. In doing so, it offers conceptual framings in art and curatorial practice and critical understandings of lived experience, challenging the normative epistemologies that typically operate between aesthetics and politics in food art and performance. The book critically engages with themes including enculturation, diaspora, museology, sustainability, activism, and socially engaged art; it reworks notions of collaboration, correspondence, and commensality in human and more-than-human relations. Tastes of Justice offers its readers unique techniques to attend to invisibilities, inequalities, relationalities, and justice where the politics of food art is inseparable from its aesthetics from the way it tastes.

Understories: Plants and Culture in the American Tropics Lesley Wylie, 2023-11-15 Understories: Plants and Culture in the American Tropics establishes the central importance of plants to the histories and cultures of the extended tropical region stretching from the U.S. South to Argentina. Through close examination of a number of significant plants—cacao, maize, agave, the hevea, brasilensis, kudzu, the breadfruit, soy, and the ceiba pentandra, among others—this volume shows that vegetal life has played a fundamental role in shaping societies and in formulating cultural and environmental imaginaries in and beyond the region. Drawing on a wide range of cultural traditions and forms across literature, popular music, art, and film, the essays included in this volume transcend regional and linguistic boundaries to bring together multiple plant-centred histories or understories, narratives that until now have been marginalized or gone unnoticed. Attending not only to the significant influence of humans on plants but also of plants on humans, this book offers new understandings of how colonization, globalization, and power were and continue to be imbricated with nature in the American tropics.

The British Empire Mark Doyle, 2018-06-29 An essential starting point for anyone wanting to learn about life in the largest empire in history, this two-volume work encapsulates the imperial experience from the 16th to 21st centuries. From early sixteenth-century explorations to the handover of Hong Kong in 1997, the British Empire controlled outposts on every continent, spreading its people and ideas across the globe and profiting mightily in the process. The present state of our world, from its increasing interconnectedness to its vast inequalities and from the successful democracies of North America to the troubled regimes of Africa and the Middle East, can be traced in large part to the way in which Great Britain expanded and controlled its empire. The British Empire: A Historical Encyclopedia addresses a broader range of topics than do most other surveys of the empire covering not only major political and military developments but also topics that have only recently come to serious scholarly attention such as women s and gender history art and architecture indigenous histories and perspectives and the construction of colonial knowledge and ideologies By going beyond the headline events of the British Empire this captivating work communicates the British imperial experience in its totality     The Sea Frederick Whympers,1872     Men, Ships, and the Sea Alan Villiers,National Geographic Society (U.S.),1962 A well illustrated book tracing the development of ships and historic battles fought at sea     The Lutheran Witness ,1884     The Christian messenger ,1884     The Selangor Journal ,1894     Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1871     A History of the Vegetable Kingdom; Embracing Comprehensive Descriptions of the Plants Most Interesting for Their Uses to Man and the Lower Animals ... William Rhind (M.R.C.S.),1874     The Panama Canal Review ,1971     A History of the Vegetable Kingdom William Rhind,1874     Memoirs of hydrography Llewellyn Styles Dawson,1885     The ocean wave: narratives of some of the greatest voyages, seamen [&c.].
