

Soviet takeover of Eastern Europe

- Following WWII the USSR slowly gained more political control over Eastern Europe in places like Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Albania
- The USSR used Salami Tactics to defeat political opposition slowly so not to generate immediate backlash from the U.S. and Britain
 - Salami Tactics refers to when an individual or government little-by-little will "slice away" at their opposition so that they do not raise tension or suspicion until it is too late
- In Poland, the "free elections" that Stalin was supposed to facilitate in 1947 resulted in potential Presidential candidates being disqualified, arrested, murdered or deported to Siberia. The party that was elected became a puppet government run by Stalin and allied with the USSR.

The Breakdown Of The Sinovietnamese Alliance 1970-1979:

Dessins, aquarelles... tableaux... porcelaines... Sculptures... sièges, meubles principalement du XVIII^e s, 1938 The Breakdown of the Sino-Vietnamese Alliance, 1970-1979 Anne Gilks, 1992 The Breakdown of the Sino-Vietnamese Alliance, 1970-1979 Anne Gilks, 1992 The Sino-Vietnamese Approach to Managing Boundary Disputes Ramses Amer, 2002 Chinese Strategic Culture and Foreign Policy Decision-Making Huiyun Feng, 2007-06-11 Examining the major academic and policy debates over China's rise and related policy issues this book looks into the motivations and intentions of a rising China. Most of the scholarly works on China's rise approach the question at a structural level by looking at the international system and the systemic impact on China's foreign policy. Traditional Realist theorists define China as a revisionist power eager to address wrongs done to them in history whilst some cultural and historical analyses attest that China's strategic culture has been offensive despite its weak material capability. Huiyun Feng's path breaking contribution to the debate tests these rival hypotheses by examining systematically the beliefs of contemporary Chinese leaders and their strategic interactions with other states since 1949 when the communist regime came to power. The focus is on tracing the historical roots of Chinese strategic culture and its links to the decision making of six key Chinese leaders via their belief systems. Chinese Strategic Culture will be of interest to students of Chinese politics, foreign policy, strategic theory and international relations in general. The Chinese/Vietnamese Diaspora Yuk Wah Chan, 2012-06-12 Over three decades have passed since the first wave of Indochinese refugees left their homelands. These refugees, mainly the Vietnamese, fled from war and strife in search of a better life elsewhere. By investigating the Vietnamese diaspora in Asia, this book sheds new light on the Asian refugee era, 1975-1991, refugee settlement and different patterns of host-guest interactions that will have implications for refugee studies elsewhere. The book provides a clearer historical understanding of the group dynamics among refugees, the ethnic Chinese, Vietnamese refugees from both the North and South, as well as the northern Vietnamese refugees. An examination of different aspects of migration including planning for migration, choices of migration route and reasons for migration, an analysis of the ethnic and refugee politics during the refugee era, the settlement and subsequent resettlement. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of globalization, migration, ethnicities, refugee histories and politics. China and the Vietnam Wars, 1950-1975 Qiang Zhai, 2000 Drawing on newly released Chinese sources, Qiang Zhai traces the rise and fall of the Sino-Vietnamese alliance in the quarter century after the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949. Vietnamese Foreign Policy in Transition Ramses Amer, 1999 This book studies Vietnam's emergence as a major actor in Southeast Asian and global affairs. It focuses its analysis primarily on the period since 1995 when Vietnam became the seventh member of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN). The analysis considers the impact of the Asian financial crisis on Vietnam. The contributors explore the sea change in Vietnamese foreign policy that emerged in the late 1980s and early 1990s as Vietnam moved from dependency on the Soviet Union to a more balanced and multilateral set of external relations Chinese Warfighting Mark A. Ryan, David Michael Finkelstein, Michael A. McDevitt, 2003 This is the first systematic study of modern China's military campaigns and the actual fighting conducted by the People's Liberation Army since the founding of the People's Republic. It provides a general overview of the evolution of PLA military doctrine and then focuses on major combat episodes from the civil war with the Nationalists to the last significant combat in Vietnam in 1979 in addition to navy and air operations through 1999. In contrast to the many works on the specifics and hardware of China's military modernization, this book discusses such topics as military planning, command and control, fighting and politics, combat tactics and performance, technological catch up and doctrinal flexibility, the role of Mao Zedong, scale and typologies of fighting and deterrence. The contributors include scholars from Mainland China, Taiwan and the United States who draw from a wealth of fresh archival sources.
