The Buddhist Forum Volume Iv:

The Buddhist Forum, Vol. IV T. Skorupski,2005-08-09 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company    Buddhism and Politics in Twentieth Century Asia Ian Harris,2001-08-22 In this study a team of international scholars assess the manner in which Buddhist organizations and individuals have resisted come to terms with or in some cases allied themselves with the forces of war modernity westernization nationalization capitalism communism and ethnic conflict By examining issues such as left right divisions in the monastic order the rise of organized lay movements Buddhist social activism as well as explicitly Buddhist inspired political activity this book seeks to demonstrate that the emphasis on meditation and mental training is only one strand in this richly complex world historical tradition    The

Origins of Yoga and Tantra Geoffrey Samuel,2008-03-27 Yoga tantra and other forms of Asian meditation are practised in modernized forms throughout the world today but most introductions to Hinduism or Buddhism tell only part of the story of how they developed This book is an interpretation of the history of Indic religions up to around 1200 CE with particular focus on the development of yogic and tantric traditions It assesses how much we really know about this period and asks what sense we can make of the evolution of yogic and tantric practices which were to become such central and important features of the Indic religious scene Its originality lies in seeking to understand these traditions in terms of the total social and religious context of South Asian society during this period including the religious practices of the general population with their close engagement with family gender economic life and other pragmatic concerns    The Theosophical Forum ,1898

Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 3: Power, Politics, and the Reinvention of Tradition ,2006-08-01 This volume focuses upon the relationships between the past and the present evoked in Tibetan historiography ritual literature and Buddhist esoteric writings It offers diverse perspectives on a critical period in Tibet s history when Tibetans found themselves caught up in the tides of political turmoil and forced into the center of a much larger Central Eurasian struggle for power and territorial control between the Manchu rulers of the Qing empire and the Mongols of the north The volume highlights the various ways Tibetan historians biographers and Buddhist scholars during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries succeeded in the task of reinventing and reinforcing their respective traditions    Seminar

Papers 1994-1996 Tadeusz Skorupski,1996    Zen Buddhist Rhetoric in China, Korea, and Japan ,2011-11-25 One of the key factors for the success of the Ch n S n Zen schools in East Asia was the creativity of their adherents concerning the development of innovative literary genres and the skillful application of linguistic and rhetorical devices in their textual products From the very beginning Zen Buddhists used literature in order to attract the attention and support of influential lay Buddhists such as literati officials and members of the aristocracy Consequently Zen Buddhist texts had a deep and lasting impact on the development of East Asian languages literary genres and rhetorical devices and more generally on East Asian culture In this volume leading specialists in East Asian Buddhism and linguistics analyze the interplay of language and doctrine ideology in Chinese Ch n Korean S n and Japanese Zen as well as tracing developments triggered by changes in the respective sociopolitical and socio religious contexts As a special focus Zen rhetoric will be related to pre Ch n Buddhist literary developments in India and China in order to trace continuities and changes in the application of rhetorical strategies in the overall framework of Buddhist literary production Through this diachronic and comparative approach the great complexity and the multifaceted features of Ch n S n Zen literature is revealed Women in the Footsteps of the Buddha Kathryn R. Blackstone,2013-11-19 A detailed exploration of the quest for liberation on the part of the early bhikkunis Only text in the Buddhist tradition of known female authorship Important to anyone investigating women s own perspective on their religion Also provides a clear statement about how renunciants understand nibbana

An Introduction to Early Buddhist Soteriology G. A. Somaratne,2022-05-09 The book offers a comprehensive discussion on the Buddhist liberation and meditation concepts based on the original P li scriptures of Therav da Buddhism It interprets the early Buddhist soteriology critically and sympathetically by interweaving the Buddhological and the Buddhistic debates on understanding the Buddha s original teaching on bondage liberation liberated ones and meditation It showcases the liberal and pluralistic character of early Buddhist soteriology by interpreting it psychologically through the lens of the Buddha s recognition of two sets of psychosomatic and epistemic mental configurations active in the human mind It shows how this dualism pervades the early Buddhist soteriology by pointing out its recognition of craving and ignorance as two causes of suffering the emancipation of mind and the emancipation by wisdom as two constituents of liberation and the meditative appeasing and the meditative watching as two methods to attain that liberation It demonstrates how the Buddha structures a gradual path to liberation enabling individuals to experience many temporary and irreversible secondary goals along the way and allowing them to join the path at any stage appropriate to their temperaments and advancement at a given time and space The book therefore serves the students and scholars of Buddhism religion and psychology to obtain a comprehensive and insightful introduction to Buddhist soteriology
