were told to me by my ancestors about my family's history I wonder how much of the stories are true and complete Have there been parts of the stories omitted Relatives who have been disowned may not have been included in the accounts of the past We all have secrets and stories that we will never tell What secrets have not been told in these stories Are the stories altered or enhanced to make the past more glorified or sensational There are many questions that I wish I had asked my relatives while they were still alive The answers to these questions will probably go unanswered Over the years I have heard varying accounts of the same stories of our family's history from my younger ancestors Their stories are not congruent with the family history told to me from the lips of my ancestors Their stories do not track with the things that I myself experienced and observed in the presence of my long deceased relatives I was there in the flesh with some of these relatives I can still close my eyes and see them in my mind's eyes I can still hear their voices in my mind's ears I remember these relatives and what they were like In the pages of this book I have written stories about friends and relatives from my past and present I have written a partial accounting of my family's history according to how it was told to me and from my personal observations and experiences As I get older I find that a lot of things no longer matter It does not matter to me who my relatives were or where they came from All that matters is that I was born and had the privilege of living the four seasons of my life in God's beautiful world Ultimately we are all God's children and brothers and sisters in Christ We are all connected through God

The Camera of My Family, 199? Sawbill Jennifer Case, 2018-03 In Sawbill Jennifer Case watches her family suddenly exchange their rooted existence for a series of relocations that take them across the United States In response Case struggles to live in place without a geographical home a struggle that leads her to search for grounding in the now dismantled fishing resort her grandparents ran in northeastern Minnesota By chronicling her migratory adulthood alongside the similarly unpredictable history of Sawbill Lodge this memoir offers a resonant meditation on home family environment and the human desire for place in the inherently mobile twenty first century
