and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism K rkk inen constructs a wide and deep theology of the Holy Spirit examining creation and the sciences other cosmic powers and beings the concepts of spirits in other religions and the Spirit s place in society and politics He also goes beyond traditional ways of understanding salvation election forgiveness justification sanctification and glorification and includes discussions of Spirit baptism healing and restoration reconciliation liberation and peace building carefully comparing Christian perspectives with the salvific views of other religions

The Religion and Philosophy of the Veda and Upanishads Arthur Berriedale Keith,1925 The Buddhist Concept of Hell Daigan Matsunaga,Alicia Matsunaga,1971 The first half of the book studies the development of hell as a philosophical concept from Early Buddhism through the Madhyamika and Vijnava schools The second half based upon the Saddharmasmityupasthitas tra presents an analysis of the eight symbolic Buddhist hells as a journey into self reflection Book jacket

Rethinking Ghosts in World Religions Muzhou Pu,2009 The central theme of this volume is to re examine the received concepts and images of ghosts in various religious cultures ranging from the Ancient Near East and Egypt to the Old Testament the Classical Era Early Medieval and Early Modern Europe Early India and Medieval China As a religious phenomenon the realm of ghosts has been less studied than the realm of the divine Through a collaborative effort by scholars from different disciplines this volume proposes a multi cultural approach to construct a wider and complicated picture of the phenomenon of ghosts and spirits in human societies and to have a grasp of the various problems involved in understanding the phenomenon of ghost

Animals and Plants in Chinese Religions and Science Huaiyu Chen,2023-03-14 This book is a unique transdisciplinary study on animals and plants in medieval Chinese religions and science especially in such a critical era of environmental crisis today In recent years environment historians have written intensively on China yet the study of animals and plants in medieval China was less developed not much about the role of religions more precisely This book aims to bridge the gaps between religious studies and environmental studies between the history of science and religious studies and between animal studies and plant studies It also deals with folklores and other literary sources for examining the changing images of animals in the psychological and imaginative experience which are often overlooked in the conventional scholarship This book addresses big issues such as how religious agents responded to the challenges about animals and plants as material culture in the mundane world and how the religious writers developed their different discourse about animals and plants from the state ideology and how the spiritual world and natural world mutually enriched each other in the medieval world of China

Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin,2008-03-12 Here at last is the massively updated and augmented second edition of this landmark encyclopedia It contains approximately 1000 entries dealing in depth with the history of the scientific technological and medical accomplishments of cultures outside of the United States and Europe The entries consist of fully updated articles together with hundreds of entirely new topics This unique reference work includes intercultural articles on broad topics such as mathematics and astronomy as well as thoughtful philosophical articles on concepts and ideas related to the study of non Western Science such as rationality objectivity and method You ll also find material on religion and science East and West and magic and science Religion and Anthropology Brian Morris,2006 This important textbook provides a critical introduction to the social anthropology of religion focusing on more recent classical ethnographies Comprehensive free of scholastic jargon engaging and comparative in approach it covers all the major religious traditions that have been studied concretely by anthropologists Shamanism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity and its relation to African and Melanesian religions and contemporary Neopaganism Eschewing a thematic approach and treating religion as a social institution and not simply as an ideology or symbolic system the book follows the dual heritage of social anthropology in combining an interpretative understanding and sociological analysis The book will appeal to all students of anthropology whether established scholars or initiates to the discipline as well as to students of the social sciences and religious studies and for all those interested in comparative religion The Dhamma of Gotama the Buddha and the Gospel of Jesus the Christ Charles Francis Aiken (priest),1900 Christian evidences.
