English Convents in Catholic Europe, c.1600-1800 James E. Kelly, 2020-01-02 Re-orientates our understanding of English convents in exile towards Catholic Europe contextualizing the convents within the transnational Church

Lives of Spirit Nicky Hallett, 2016-05-06 Nicky Hallett has uncovered a major new source of material by and about English nuns living in exile in the Low Countries during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries This volume presents the women's voices in unmediated form direct in all their vibrancy with an extensive introduction that provides historical and cultural contexts for an understanding of the Lives their sources and their authors Lives of Spirit draws upon several remarkable sets of papers compiled in enclosed convents between 1619 and 1794 These documents show that religious women developed an astute system of auto-biographical practice within a protean political situation and that even in exile and from within enclosure they sought to shape a distinctive contribution to devotional change within a reforming church This volume reveals how the women's Lives challenge as well as affirm notions of gendered spirituality refiguring traditions of female life writing that extend from Catherine of Siena 1347-80 through the work of the Carmelite reformer Teresa of Avila 1515-82 into the later modern period The newness of the material in this book allows a radical reappraisal of the self representation of religious women and of paradigms of life writing in and beyond the early modern period This book is of significant interest to scholars interested in early modern women's writing female spirituality and autobiography more widely as a genre
