The Burning Fountain Philip Wheelwright, 1959 The Burning Fountain, a Study in the Language of Symbolism. Philip Wheelwright Philip Wheelwright, 1954 The Burning Fountain Philip Ellis Wheelwright, 1968 The Power of Pictures in Christian Thought Anthony C. Thiselton, 2018-11-15 A biblical historical and theological investigation into the tendency of literary images to either enlighten or mislead and how we can learn to distinguish between the two Part One considers key philosophical and aesthetic evaluations of literary images and symbols The power of pictures is widely appreciated as in the adage a picture is worth a thousand words Sometimes Christian discourse can be smothered by endless prose which demands much inferential reasoning There is however a contrary argument An isolated visual representation can be misleading if it is improperly interpreted For example some mystical visions are interpreted as direct instructions from the Holy Spirit as happened with the Radical Reformers who advocated the Peasants Revolt Hence theories of symbol metaphor and visual representation must be examined Part Two discusses visual representation in the Old Testament the teaching of Jesus pictures and analogies in Paul and the Book of Revelation This shows the range of authentic visual representations In contrast to biblical material we find throughout Christian history abundant examples of misleading imagery which is often passed off as Christian A notorious example is found in the visual representation and metaphors used by Gnostic writers Almost as bad are some visual representations used by the medieval mystics Radical Reformers and extreme charismatics all of which lack valid criteria of interpretation relying instead on subjective conviction Similarly sermons and prayers today can be enriched with pictorial images but some can be misleading and unhelpful for the life of the Church A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 A Commentary on the Animal Apocalypse of I Enoch Patrick A. Tiller, 1993 The Animal Apocalypse is now the second of two dream visions that together form Book 4 of 1 Enoch A slightly revised version of the author's doctoral dissertation Harvard Divinity School 1991 this commentary explicates the details of the allegory its overall meaning and its place in the political and intellectual history of Judaism Paper edition unseen 24 95 Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or Norman Perrin's Interpretation of the New Testament Calvin R. The People of God in the Apocalypse Stephen Pattemore, 2004-06-17 Stephen Pattemore examines passages within Revelation 4 1 22 21 that depict the people of God as actors in the apocalyptic drama and infers what impact these passages would have had on the self understanding and behaviour of the original audience of the work He uses Relevance Theory a development in the linguistic field of pragmatics to help understand the text against the background of allusion to other texts Three important images are traced The picture of the souls under the altar 6 9 11 is found to govern much of the direction of the text with its call to faithful witness and willingness for martyrdom Even the militant image of a messianic army 7 1 8 14 1 5 urges the audience in precisely the same direction Both images combine in the final image of the bride the culmination of
