Cantankerous Crow Lennart Hellsing,1962-06-01      The Cantankerous Crow Lennart Hellsing,2016-11-29 The story of a funny little crow and his strange family told through the whimsical story and drawings of a celebrated Swedish author and Danish illustrator This is the story of a spunky wayward little crow who comes from a family of crazy crows that includes a sister who tries to write and another who builds castles The Cantankerous Crow s adventures began one day when a farmer caught him eating cherries from one of his trees The farmer put him to work but the crow kept doing things his own way So he chopped up a flagpole for kindling poured water on the cat s head and went on a wild wagon ride with the farmer s son that almost ended in disaster He didn t do much better by a baker who tried him out as an apprentice but he did manage to have a grand time with all his mistakes Nevertheless he was glad to fly back to his family who welcomed him in their own special way This lively brightly illustrated classic children s book originally published in 1953 is available again to bring this whimsical story to a new generation of readers      The Cantankerous Crow ...
