The Caribbean Exodus Barry Levine, 1987-02-02 For review see Jorge Duany in Caribbean studies vol 23 nr 3 4 1990 p 160 165 The Routledge History of Modern Latin American Migration Andreas E. Feldmann, Xochitl Bada, Jorge Durand, Stephanie Schütze, 2022-10-26 The Routledge History of Modern Latin American Migration offers a systematic account of population movements to and from the region over the last 150 years spanning from the massive transoceanic migration of the 1870s to contemporary intraregional and transnational movements The volume introduces the migratory trajectories of Latin American populations as a complex web of transnational movements linking origin transit and receiving countries It showcases the historical mobility dynamics of different national groups including Arab Asian African European and indigenous migration and their divergent international trajectories within existing migration systems in the Western Hemisphere including South America the Caribbean and Mesoamerica The contributors explore some of the main causes for migration including wars economic dislocation social immobility environmental degradation repression and violence Multiple case studies address critical contemporary topics such as the Venezuelan exodus Central American migrant caravans environmental migration indigenous and gender migration migrant religiosity transit and return migration urban labor markets internal displacement the nexus between organized crime and forced migration the role of social media and new communication technologies and the effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on movement These essays provide a comprehensive map of the historical evolution of migration in Latin America and contribute to define future challenges in migration studies in the region This book will be of interest to scholars of Latin American and Migration Studies in the disciplines of history sociology political science anthropology and geography The West Indian Americans Holger Henke Ph.D., 2000-11-30

The West Indian Americans introduces students and other interested readers to the diversity and cultural individuality of a growing segment of the American immigrant community After an introductory chapter that describes the history and people of Jamaica and the other English speaking Caribbean nations their migration to the United States and patterns of adjustment and adaptation are discussed Next the West Indian cultural traditions transferred to this country especially the churches literature music and festivals are evoked Another chapter covers family networks return migration and remittances to those members left behind in the West Indies Final chapters examine the new challenges for the West Indian Americans such as identity issues education and job prospects and gang and drug problems and the contributions of West Indian immigrants

Persistent Underdevelopment Jay Mandle, 2010-11-26 First published in 1996 this insightful and informative text examines the post emancipation and recent economic history of the Commonwealth Caribbean Jay R Mandle offers an explanation of the region's continuing underdevelopment Through the use of an analytical framework derived from the works of Marx and Kuznets the book focuses attention on technological change as the driving force behind economic modernization Persistent Underdevelopment begins by exploring how plantation agriculture had a limiting effect on industrial growth

Ultimately plantation dominance receded technological stagnation continued however and under British colonial policy the Caribbean failed to modernise The post World War II era brought new efforts at modernisation through the economic policies of the left regimes of Manley Burnham and Bishop The concluding chapters point the way to policies that would enable the Caribbean to escape its current poverty and become an effective participant in world markets finally achieving the goal of modern economic development Routes of Passage Ruth Simms Hamilton,2007 Routes of Passage provides a conceptual substantive and empirical orientation to the study of African people worldwide The book addresses issues of geographical mobility and geosocial displacement changing culture political and economic relationships between Africa and its diaspora interdiaspora relations political and economic agency and social mobilization including cultural production and psychocultural transformation existence in hostile and oppressive political and territorial space and confronting interconnected relations of social inequality especially class gender nationality and race Salt-water Trinnies Christine G. T. Ho,1991 Trinnies Trinidadians who have moved to the United States yet consider themselves Trinidadians are the subject of this study in assimilation After the passage of the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act large numbers of black immigrants from Trinidad and Tobago emigrated to Los Angeles established a community with networks of kinship friendship and marriage and laid down roots The roots proved to be a very shallow system however with relationships restricted to fellow Trinidadians a process encouraged by race considerations in the US The author challenges the assumptions of the assimilation school by defining the communities under study not in territorial terms but in terms of interaction

International Migration Systems Mary M. Kritz,Lin Lean Lim,Hania Zlotnik,1992 The authors use a systems approach to examine contemporary international migration and other types of population flows between countries They investigate the effect of those flows on both sending and receiving countries in the areas of economic political and social links of the countries concerned This work includes a set of comparative case studies as well of theoretical chapters which will be of interest to demographers sociologists economists social historians as well as policymakers Literacy in African American Communities Joyce L. Harris,Alan G. Kamhi,Karen E. Pollock,2014-04-08 This volume explores the unique sociocultural contexts of literacy development values and practices in African American communities African Americans young and old are frequently the focus of public discourse about literacy In a society that values a rather sophisticated level of literacy they are among those who are most disadvantaged by low literacy achievement Literacy in African American Communities contributes a fresh perspective by revealing how social history and cultural values converge to influence African Americans literacy values and practices acknowledging that literacy issues pertaining to this group are as unique and complex as this group s collective history Existing literature on literacy in African American communities is typically segmented by age or academic discipline This fragmentation obscures the cyclical life span effects of this population s legacy of low literacy In contrast this book brings together in a single source volume personal historical developmental and cross disciplinary vantage points to look at both developmental and adult literacy from the perspectives of education linguistics psychology anthropology and communication sciences and disorders As a whole it provides important evidence that the negative cycle of low literacy can be broken by drawing on the literacy experiences found within African American communities The West Indian Americans Holger Henke,2001 Henke clearly relates who the groups are from the Jamaicans to the Garifuna why they left their homelands how they have adapted and impacted this country and the new challenges they face Many notable West Indian Americans are profiled BOOK JACKET Immigration to the U.S. Robert Emmet Long,1992 Discusses the problems associated with the current wave of immigrants into the United States International Migration, Refugee Flows and Human Rights in North America Alan Burtham Simmons,1996 Contributors explore the relationship between sexual abuse and eating disorders touching on issues such as false memory syndrome reenactment of trauma by self abuse syndromes and the influence of early trauma on eating behavior Other topics include sexual violence as a predictor of food related syndromes trauma based therapy dissociation feminist approaches to treatment and the sexual self of an eating disordered person Includes a first person narrative Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Addressing the Unique Needs of Latino American Students Anna M. Ortiz,2004-05-10 This volume explores the experiences of Latinos in higher education and seeks to shape a picture of their participation that is representative of the diversity of the group and of the higher education institutions they inhabit Contributors provide information that will be useful to student affairs professionals who serve Latinos on a regular basis The insights here have implications for admissions student activities and Greek affairs career development ethnic student services and academic advising programs and offices The innovative scholars here all have experience as practitioners that enhances their approach to research The research findings highlight personal and educational experiences of Latinos in higher education demonstrate the students tenacity to overcome economic educational and cultural barriers to succeed in college and illuminate the factors in the college environment that contributed to their success This is the 105th volume of the quarterly higher education journal New Directions for Student Services Man in India Sarat Chandra Roy (Rai Bahadur),2008 The American Columbiad Mario Materassi,Maria Irene Ramalho Sousa Santos,1996 The overall picture is an exciting mosaic of significant scholarly contributions to ongoing critical debates In Search of a Better Life Abroad Oswald S.
