The Caribbean Survival Struggle And Sovereignty:

The Caribbean Catherine A. Sunshine, 1988 The Caribbean Cathy Sunshine, 1985 For review see Viranjini Munasinghe in Nieuwe West Indisch Gids New West Indian Guide vol 62 1988 p 96 98 Caribbean Sovereignty, Development and Democracy in an Age of Globalization Linden Lewis, 2013 Many of the nations of the Caribbean that have become independent states have maintained as a central organizing nationalist principle the importance in the beliefs of the ideals of sovereignty democracy and development Yet in recent years political instability the relative size of these nations and the increasing economic vulnerabilities of the region have generated much popular and policy discussions over the attainability of these goals The geo political significance of the region its growing importance as a major transshipment gateway for illegal drugs coming from Latin America to the United States issues of national security vulnerability to corruption and increases in the level of violence and social disorder have all raised serious questions not only about the notions of sovereignty democracy and development but also about the long term viability of these nations This volume is intended to make a strategic intervention into the discourse on these important topics but the importance of its contribution resides in its challenge to conventional wisdom on these matters and the multidisciplinary approach it employs Recognized experts in the field identify these concerns in the context of globalization economic crises and their impact on the Caribbean

Manufacturing Powerlessness in the Black Diaspora Charles Green, 2002-05-09 Despite the economic utopianism brought on by globalization effective solutions to the persistent plight of urban blacks throughout the African diaspora continue to elude scholars politicians and community leaders Charles Green brings a decade of research and original fieldwork in Africa the Caribbean and the United States to investigate the interface of the historic racism faced by these urban communities and contemporary trends of globalization Green pays particular attention to the condition of the youth whose aspirations vulnerabilities and insights into their own conditions are central to the future prospects for their communities as a whole Considering the impacts of economic restructuring and cultural diffusion alike his analysis asserts the importance of both global ties and local distinctiveness Ultimately Manufacturing Powerlessness aims to encourage the formation of alliances throughout the diaspora so that urban black communities can manufacture a future of empowerment Visit the author's web page Regionalism Versus Multilateralism Christopher R. Thomas, Juliana T. Magloire, 2012-12-06 In today's globalized international system international and regional organizations can only function effectively within the context of a larger social partnership with governments the private sectors and a plethora of increasingly influential interest groups Regionalism Versus Multilateralism seeks to illustrate these new roles by tracing the way the Organization of American States OAS the oldest regional organization has pursued its objectives in the context of evolving hemispheric and international circumstances It analyzes the impact of these circumstances on the operations programs and activities of the Organization and the adjustments and direction which metamorphosed the regional membership at certain crucial junctures of hemispheric and international evolution The book does so in three parts through an historic examination of the objectives of the Organization a critical analysis of its response over time to the forces of growth transformation and change and the projection of what continuing developments might dictate on the future characteristics of the Organization if it is to respond effectively to the needs and aspirations of member states This book is a collaboration between Christopher R Thomas and Julian T Magloire with both parties contributing equally to its content and preparation Migration Culture Vilmantė Kumpikaitė -Valiūnienė,Vilmantė Liubinienė,Ineta Žičkutė,Jurga Duobienė,Audra I. Mockaitis,Antonio Mihi-Ramirez,2021-05-17 This book examines the emergence of a culture of migration through outward migration as a country specific phenomenon and analyzes it from different perspectives covering various aspects such as the history of a country its migration flows migration push factors social economic and political issues as well as individual values In the first part the authors present a theoretical background on migration culture formation This is followed by an in depth analysis of migration culture in Lithuania in the second part The presented case study is based on a quantitative survey study of almost 5 400 respondents Further the results of this case study are compared and adapted to other classical migration countries in the European Union such as Spain or Portugal The book therefore is a must read for everybody interested in a better understanding of migration and the emergence of a culture of migration in different countries New West Indian guide,1992 Challenge,1997 Caribbean Newsletter,1988 Condoning the Killing,1990 This book documents thirty two massacres committed Salvadoran government troops who were trained and supported by the U S governments Through the years U S officials have denied ignored or justified the Salvadoran government's violence against civilians The French-speaking World Louise Fiber Luce,1991 The French Speaking World is an anthology of nineteen readings in English that will help students increase their cross cultural awareness and deepen their understanding of francophone cultures worldwide The readings are culled from a variety of sources from scholarly journals to popular magazines Empire & the Word Philip Wheaton,Duane Shank,1988 Publishers Directory,1994 Latin America James D. K. Hall and Co. Staff,1988-10 Empowerment Jennifer L. Harold,1991 Connecting Across Cultures and Continents Achola O. Pala,1995 The dialogues in this book present a cross cultural multidisciplinary critique of racism and the advocacy required to confront its persistence globally While the essays begin to refocus attention on racism as a challenge to international development they also call on the international women s movement to support Black women s efforts to realize their own humanity The authors provide an analysis and a metaphor for Black women across the globe who are working to transcend their alienation to validate their own heritage and to escape the tyranny of racial discrimination The authors provide an analysis and a metaphor for Black women across the globe who are working to transcend their alienation to validate their own heritage and to escape the tyranny of racial discrimination The dialogues in this book present a cross cultural multidisciplinary critique of racism and the advocacy required to confront its persistence globally While the essays begin to refocus attention on racism as a challenge to international development they also call on the international women s movement to support Black women s efforts to realize their own humanity The authors provide an analysis and a metaphor for Black women across the globe who are working to transcend their alienation to validate their own heritage and to escape the tyranny of racial discrimination Journal of American Culture ,1989
