The Continuing City:

No Continuing City Alan R. Tippett,2013-09-20 Alan Tippett's publications played a significant role in the development of missiology. The volumes in this series augment his distinguished reputation by bringing to light his many unpublished materials and hard to locate printed articles. These books encompassing theology, anthropology, history, area studies, religion, and ethnohistory broaden the contours of the discipline. As a gift to Edna and the children on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, Tippett completed his autobiography ironically just months prior to his death. Containing personal reflections on his childhood and later mission experiences in the South Pacific, relationship with Donald McGavran and the founding of the School of World Mission, and retirement years in Australia, No Continuing City is the inside story. These are Tippett's Personal reflections that can be found in no other publication. Twenty years as a missionary in Fiji following pastoral ministry in Australia and graduate degrees in history and anthropology provide the rich database that made Alan R. Tippett a leading missiologist of the twentieth century. Tippett served as Professor of Anthropology and Oceanic Studies at Fuller Theological Seminary. The Whole Works of the Late Reverend and Learned Mr. Thomas Boston, Minister of the Gospel at Etterick Thomas Boston, 1849 The Marrow of Certainty Chun Tse, 2023-06-12 Assurance was a central issue for the eminent Scottish theologian pastor Thomas Boston long before it emerged as a focal point of the theological debate in the Marrow Controversy. In The Marrow of Certainty Chun Tse presents the first full length study of Boston's theology of assurance in six dimensions: trinitarian, covenantal, Christological, soteriological, ecclesiastical, and sacramental. This work not only furnishes the first ever intellectual biography of Boston in his Scottish context and controversies but it also cross studies the theology of the Marrow of Modern Divinity with Boston's notes. This research argues that Boston's doctrine of assurance centres on union and communion with Christ, the architectonic principle of his theology. The book challenges the common conception that Boston's theology merely follows Calvin, the Scots Confession, the Marrow, the Westminster Standards, and Scottish federalism. Boston most strikingly holds in tension assurance as intrinsic to faith itself, a gift from God's sovereignty in election, while insisting on self examination as a human responsibility. This salient mark of his doctrine of assurance originates from his assertion that Christ died for the elect alone but all elect or not have the warrant to receive Christ. As such, assurance is theologically a divine gift and pastorally a human endeavour. Certainty is thus both extra nos and intra nos. Boston, this study reveals, has a potent and enduring power to speak on the perennial issue of assurance rooted in the person of Christ whom he considers as being the covenant itself.
